A lot of people in modern society can't do without this. This, often called an idiot box, has become a 'third parent' to our children and a 'second spouse' to our wives and husbands. Indeed, in some homes the children and the parents spend more time with this than each other. It is very serious that this takes up too much of our time and attention.

A French soldier, Charles Babier invented a system of night-reading. The system was difficult, but it gave Louis an idea. He made the system easier so that the blind could use it to read books. When he was fifteen, his new system was ready! Now he wanted blind schools to use this system, but the schools did not want it. Two years after he died, the blind schools began to use this system. Today it is used for all languages, and for math, science, writing music, and computers for the blind.

It was the worst day for Sally today. Everything seemed to go wrong. Her clock didn't wake her up on time in the morning. She skipped her breakfast and hurried out to her car. But the car keys were missing. She looked all over the house. She turned everything upside down. At last, she found them under the table. To make it worse, she was caught in the heavy traffic. It took almost 2 hours to get to work.

My ten-year-old son Andrew had a hard time with his painful tooth. So we went to a dentist's office to have it pulled out. He looked a bit nervous. Entering the room, the dentist asked, "Well, Andrew, which one is the troublemaker?" Without hesitation, Andrew replied, "My brother. He is two years younger. He sometimes takes my toys away."

Maria thought it was a cute trick. So she gave Larry a special treat. The next day, Maria went to sit down. There were ten newspapers on her chair. Then she saw Larry wagging his tail. He had gone to all the houses on the block. He had taken the newspapers from the doors and brought them home. He wanted _____.

es not have any smog is Reykjavik, Iceland. Reykjavik does not have smog because it has very little smoke. In Reykjavik, most homes, offices, and factories do not have to burn things to get heat. They use the steam and hot water from many hot springs in the city. The water from these hot springs is piped to buildings, swimming pools, and even to farms to keep the plants warm. Reykjavik is not only a beautiful city — it is also a city.

ge somebody by asking, "Are you a human or a mouse?" It means that you think he has no courage. You can also say, "Everybody was as quiet as a mouse until the end of the examination. Then they made a noise like elephants." Elephants are often thought to be very noisy, but people also often say, "Elephants never forget." English people tend to imagine that elephants have . [2 점]

My wife and I are over sixty, living on a small income. Our neighbors, who are younger and making a better living, keep asking to borrow our truck. This is O.K. with us. However, the problem is that the gas tank is always empty when they return it. The least they could do is to fill the tank, isn't it? My wife always tells me to be patient, but I don't know how much longer I can hold my tongue.

There was a fire at a gas station yesterday. A worker spilled some oil on the floor. He then lit a cigarette and dropped it into the oil by mistake. The oil caught fire immediately. Soon the flames spread to other parts of the workshop. When the fire department arrived, the whole building was burning. Six fire trucks and twenty fire fighters took three hours to put out the fire. No one was hurt but the building was completely destroyed.

Americans seldom take a bath. They soap and rinse off under the shower.

In the United States, there (A) four main ways to travel: by bus, by car, by train and by plane. (B) by bus is cheap. A bus usually stops to pick up people in every city and town. But some buses stop only in the big cities. For example, it is possible to go from New York to Boston without (C) .

Nature might be a strong focus for you today. Try to spend as much of your day outside. Take a long walk in the park and get lost in your thoughts. It'll make you feel much better. Buy a plant for your house or your garden. It'll give you a strong sense of satisfaction.

The English always take a bath. First, they sit in a bathtub full of warm water. Then they soap themselves, and finally, they rinse off the soap, all in the same water. The Japanese, on the other hand, first wash with soap in the shower. Then they go and sit in a bathtub full of warm water for twenty minutes or more. Later, others in the family use the same water to sit and relax in. [2 점] busy street. Many cars use it every day. Squirrels were being killed as they tried to cross the street. Mr. Peters built a bridge for the squirrels — one that would pass above the traffic. For years now, the squirrels have been able to cross safely from one side of the street to the other.

do and not expensive? Then walking may be for you. Walking may not seem interesting, but it can be. When you walk, you move slowly, so you can see the world around you. Walking is great because you can do it anytime and anywhere. In addition, you don't need any equipment. If you have a good pair of shoes, you are ready to go. Moreover, you can enjoy it with friends. You also don't worry about winning or losing. Just getting there is enough. * equipment : 장비

Tom was on vacation with his father. They were driving to a national forest in the mountains. They had to cross a very hot, dry desert on their way to the mountains. Their car didn't have air conditioning, and the temperature was over 39°C. Every five minutes Tom asked, "Are we almost there?" His father answered, "No, a few more hours." Then their car broke down. It simply stopped there in the desert. They were hundreds of kilometers from houses, gas stations, or people. They were hot, thirsty, and tired.

My brother is just a year older than I am. We have a lot of things in common. First of all, we look alike. I am 171 centimeters tall, and so is he. I have straight black hair and dark brown eyes, and so does he. We share many of the same interests, too. I love to play soccer, and he does, too. Both of us

Camping in wilderness areas can be dangerous, so you must be prepared. You should learn about the area before you go there. You must be in good health, and you must have the right clothing and equipment. What if there is a storm? What if you get lost? For possible emergencies of this kind, you should bring extra food and water, a map, and a compass. Careful planning is the key to a safe and successful wilderness trip.

one plump because large women are thought to be beautiful, while skinny ones are regarded as ugly. In other countries, on the other hand, a fat person is thought to be unattractive, so men and women eat little and try to remain slim. In many parts of the world, people lie in the sun for hours to darken their skin, while in other places light, soft skin is seen as attractive.

It's more important to know that children have different social needs. For instance, not every child needs a lot of friends. For some kids, one or two friends could be enough. Take 12-year-old Sarah, a smart girl who loves to play the piano and the violin. When she isn't playing, she spends time with only one close friend. Her mother says, "I used to try to get her to make more friends, but finally I learned that her needs are different from other children's." [2 점]
